

JOB POSTING

Position: Environmental Health Inspector/Environmental Health Specialist (Full-Time)

The Logan County Department of Public Health is accepting applications for an immediate opening in the environmental health division for the position of Environmental Health Inspector or Environmental Health Specialist. Under supervision of the Director of Environmental Health, the candidate will receive training and perform duties in the field of environmental health. Responsibilities include, food establishment, septic, well and other environmental health related inspections and activities to determine compliance with applicable laws and to promote sanitation. The ideal candidate for the Environmental Inspector position will have an Associate degree from an accredited college or university, or its equivalent, which includes coursework consisting of a minimum of 9 credit hours of basic sciences in accordance with the Environmental Health Practitioner Licensing Act. Such candidates will perform semi-technical duties. Candidates with higher qualifications such as a Bachelor degree with at least 30 hours of basic science will be considered for hire at the position of Environmental Health Specialist and will be eligible to conduct additional technical duties. Proficiency in MS Word and Excel software is essential. The candidate must also be able to work independently and communicate effectively both orally and in writing.

Candidates must be dependable, enthusiastic and have a valid driver's license and reliable transportation. Compensation includes a competitive benefit package and salary commensurate with training and experience.

For more information, contact the Logan County Department of Public Health at 217/735-2317. To apply, complete an application at the Logan County Department of Public Health, 109 Third Street, Lincoln, Illinois 62656 or you may fax or e-mail your resume and cover letter to 217/732-6943 or FALLISON@LCDPH.ORG. An application is also available on the department website at WWW.LCDPH.ORG.

Logan County Department of Public Health is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in hiring of employees on the basis of race, color, religion, sex or national origin.